Ex 24:3-8 ~ Prayed in Korean

When Moses came to the people and related all the words and ordinances of the LORD, they all answered with one voice, "We will do everything that the LORD has told us." Moses then wrote down all the words of the LORD and, rising early the next day, he erected at the foot of the mountain an altar and twelve pillars for the twelve tribes of Israel. Then, having sent certain young men of the Israelites to offer holocausts and sacrifice young bulls in peace offerings to the LORD, Moses took half of the blood and put it in large bowls; the other half he splashed on the altar. Taking the book of the covenant, he read it aloud to the people, who answered, "All that the LORD has said, we will heed and do." Then he took the blood and sprinkled it on the people, saying, "This is the blood of the covenant that the LORD has made with you in accordance with all these words of his."

Heb 9:11-15 ~ Prayed in English

Special theme for glad thanksgiving is the quick'ning and the living bread today before you set
From his hands of old partners, as we know, by faith unshaken, when the Twelve at supper met,
Full and clear ring out your chanting, joy nor sweetest grace be wanting, from your heart let praises burst:
Here the new leviathan's oblation, by the new king's resolution, ends the form of ancient rite.
Now the new old offices, truth away the shadow chase, light dispels the gloom of night.

What he did at supper seated, Christ ordained to be repeated, his memorial rite to make:
And his rule for gladness taking, bread and wine we follow, making thus our sacrifice of peace.
Thus the truth each Christian bears, bread into his flesh he turns, to his precious blood the wine.
Sight has failed, nor thought conceived, but a countless faith believes, resting on a poor devote.
Here beneath these signs are hidden priceless things to serve his kingdom.
